About Education Abroad

In an increasingly globalized economy, Smeal students are strongly encouraged to internationalize their undergraduate education. Study abroad is an opportunity to enhance the academic experience and grow personally as well as professionally. Education abroad also satisfies requirements toward the International Business minor.

"My study abroad experiences helped me jump out of my comfort zone, be independent, make new friends, and learn a new language."

— Christy Grezeszak, Supply Chain & Information Systems

"The first time I truly began to grasp the enormity of the world we live in, and had the opportunity to immerse myself in another country's culture and way of life was during my study abroad semester in Rome."

— Nicole Brestowski, Marketing
